The Core Content Review of Family Medicine

---

Educating Family Physicians Since 1968

Overview

The Core Content Review of Family Medicine is a unique educational resource for family physicians and other primary care professionals who desire a comprehensive, practical and affordable home-study program for earning CME credit or preparing for Board examination.

Now featuring 60 hours of CME credit for about $4.00 per credit hour, this self-evaluation program can be used anywhere, anytime, at your convenience. Whether you are preparing for Board examination or want to update and improve your clinical skills, Core Content Review provides a comprehensive review of the core curriculum of family medicine.

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, you should be able to:

1. Discuss the diagnosis and management of common medical and psychological disorders encountered by family physicians.
2. Identify areas of relative strengths and weaknesses in your core knowledge of family medicine.
3. Plan additional review in preparation for certification and maintenance of certification.

Call 888-343-CORE (2673) or visit www.corecontent.com for more information.

Faculty and Program Credentials

Developed by the Connecticut and Ohio Academies of Family Physicians, Core Content Review is now in its fifth decade of providing continuing education for thousands of family physicians and other primary care professionals.

A national faculty, composed of both leading educators and practicing physicians, develops the questions and extensive discussions. All Core Content Review material is peer reviewed by a committee of family physicians ensuring applicability to current primary care practice.

Accreditation

Core Content Review of Family Medicine (print version) 2010 has been reviewed and is acceptable for up to 60 Prescribed credits by the American Academy of Family Physicians. Term of approval is for one year from beginning distribution date of 01/01/10. Each issue is approved for 7.5 Prescribed credits. Credit may be claimed for one year from the date of each issue.

AAFP Prescribed credit is accepted by both the AAPA and the AMA. When applying for the AMA PRA, Prescribed credit hours earned must be reported as Prescribed hours, not as category 1.

Prescribed credit for the CD-Rom can be found under the CD-Rom description on the next page.

Three Convenient Formats...

Print Version

The Core Content Review of Family Medicine features questions with corresponding in-depth discussions covering 40 different subject categories of family medicine/primary care. The printed version is presented in 6 Question/Discussion booklet sets and 2 Clinical Set Problem booklets over a 12-month cycle. Every issue features topic indexing. Registration information for the printed subscription is contained in this brochure and on our Web site, www.corecontent.com.

CD-ROM

A comprehensive collection of Core Content Review Question/Discussion sets and Clinical Set Problems, updated from the Review's 2006, 2007 and early 2008 print versions, is now available on CD-ROM. This interactive electronic reference resource addresses 40 different subject categories and provides a practical means to refresh and strengthen your knowledge base in preparation for Board Certification and Maintenance of Certification. The CD-ROM will be a valuable addition to your medical reference library. The CD-ROM is approved for 120 Prescribed credits by AAFP. To order the CD-ROM, see the registration form in this brochure or order on line at www.corecontent.com.

CD-ROM Version On-Line

The CD can also be accessed on our web page as an on-line product. This allows automatic tracking of scores. This is a particularly valuable feature for residency programs. More information on this can be found at www.corecontent.com.

Examples of Question/Discussion material and Clinical Set Problems contained in each of the three versions of Core Content Review can be found on our web site or obtained by e-mailing mail@corecontent.com.

Registration Information

For the Print Subscription...

You may begin the Core Content Review in any one of eight months: January, February, March, April, May, July, August, September or November. (Question booklets are not issued in March, June, September or December). Although you will complete the program in 12 months, this approach allows for a more balanced study time frame.

What your colleagues are saying...

“I still study Core Content issues and I still think they are the best continuing education vehicle on the market - so well matched to practice!” – Tina Krause, M.D.

“I am enjoying the process of going through the booklets. The answers are very well written, instructive, practical, and engaging.” – Lawrence Li, M.D.
